

DEFINITIONS APPLICABLE TO THE CODE OF CONDUCT

To better understand the Code, it is important to have an agreed-upon set of terms and concepts that in a different setting might have various definitions. This list is not exhaustive but is meant to provide a general understanding of many concepts discussed throughout this document.

1. Academic Negligence

Unknowingly or unintentionally claiming credit for the work or effort of another person, or unknowingly or unintentionally gaining (or causing another to gain) an unfair academic advantage.

2. Anonymous Material

4. Bullying

Any written, verbal, graphic, or physical act that a student exhibits toward another student; and the behavior causes mental or physical harm to the other student; and is sufficiently severe, persistent, or pervasive that it creates an intimidating, threatening, or abusive educational environment for the other student.

5. Cheating

An act of academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to:

- a. use of any unauthorized assistance in taking quizzes, tests, or examinations
- b. use of sources beyond those authorized by the instructor in writing papers, preparing reports, solving problems, or carrying out other assignments

7. Coercion

8. Complainant

Any person who submits a report/complaint alleging that a student violated a University or Program policy. When a student believes that they have been a victim of another student's misconduct, the student who believes they have been a victim will have the same rights under this Code as are provided to the Complainant, even if someone else filed the complaint.

9. Consent

An affirmative, conscious, and voluntary agreement to engage in agreed-upon forms of sexual contact as consistent with California State Law. A person cannot give consent if the person is under the age of 18; if the person is developmentally or intellectually disabled; if the person is mentally incapacitated; or physically helpless or under the influence of alcohol and/or other drugs. An individual's intoxication is never an excuse for or defense for committing sexual or gender-based harassment, sexual assault, sexual exploitation, or sexual violence. Lack of protest or resistance and silence cannot be interpreted as consent. Consent must be ongoing throughout any sexual contact and may be revoked at any time. The existence of a dating relationship, domestic partnership, or marriage between the persons involved or the existence of past sexual relations between the persons involved, is never by itself an indicator of consent.

10. Dating Violence

Physical, sexual, emotional, financial, or psychological abuse or threats of abuse against another person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the alleged abuser; and where the existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on a consideration of the following factors: the length of the relationship, the type of relationship and the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship.

14. Harassment

The conduct does not have to be threatening and may include deliberate and persistent communication that unreasonably disturbs the recipient.

15. Incapacitation or Incapacitated

A mental or physical state in which a person lacks the ability to understand the consequences of their actions and, therefore, cannot make a rational, reasonable decision. An individual who is incapacitated is unable to give consent. States of incapacitation include sleep, unconsciousness, intermittent consciousness, or any other state where the individual is unaware. Incapacitation may also exist because of a mental or developmental disability that impairs the ability to consent.
