

UNIVERSITY STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT

In cases where an MBKU student is found responsible for a violation of the Code, MBKU shall impose sanctions that are consistent with the impact of the offense on the community. MBKU reserves the right to pursue criminal and/or civil action where warranted.

1. Student Code Authority

- a. The University President shall have the ultimate oversight and authority over University Student Conduct process.
- b. For University Student Conduct processes, the President has designated the Vice President for Enrollment and Student Services (VPES) as authorized to render decisions and sanctions, and/or assign cases to other trained Officers/designees in accordance with this process.
- c. The VPES shall develop processes and procedural rules for the consistent administration of University policies. The VPES and/or designee shall serve as Chair of the University Conduct Committee and facilitate Committee hearings.
- d. The Program Dean/Director or VPES decisions shall be final after appropriate appeal processes have concluded.

2. Jurisdiction

The MBKU Code shall apply to conduct that occurs on University premises or clinical rotation sites, at University-sponsored activities, and to off-campus conduct that adversely affects the University community. Each student shall be responsible for their conduct and the conduct of their guests, from the time of admission through the actual awarding of a degree, even though conduct may occur before classes begin or after classes end. Additionally, students shall be responsible for conduct that occurs during the academic year as well as during periods between terms of actual enrollment.

The Code shall apply to a student's conduct even if the student withdraws from classes at MBKU after a report was submitted or while a disciplinary matter is pending.

The Code applies at all University locations and any other ancillary educational locations including but not limited to clinical facilities, labs, internships, or rotation sites, when applicable and/or related to MBKU coursework.

3. Anonymous Material

The University will consider acting on a case-by-case basis if it receives anonymous material concerning student health, welfare, or safety, or if it is audio/video of a potential student conduct violation.

Verbal, written, or electronic communication forms of anonymous material related to a potential student conduct violation will not be considered for University action.

Anonymous material that threatens the safety of any persons or property at the University, shall be brought to the immediate attention of the President, Director of Campus Safety, and/or any appropriate law enforcement agencies.

4. Standards of Conduct

The commission of or attempting to commit a violation of a Standard of Conduct or being an accessory to the commission of an act or attempted act shall be considered a violation of the Standard of Conduct and subject to disciplinary sanctions.

4.22 Violation of Law: Committing an act that is prohibited by local, state, or federal law.

4.23 Retaliation: MBKU encourages reporting any activity constituting a violation of policy, law, rules, or regulations, or mismanagement, gross waste of funds, abuse of authority, or a substantial and specific danger to public health and safety without fear of retaliation. In compliance with federal and state law, this protects individuals from interference when making protected disclosures, and for refusing to take part in any activity that is illegal or in violation of any MBKU policies. Retaliation includes disciplinary or adverse action taken against an individual because they have made a protected disclosure or have participated in an investigation, proceeding, or hearing involving a protected disclosure. Individuals are protected from disciplinary action or other retaliation as a result of disclosing wrongful conduct. Individuals who self-report their own misconduct are not afforded protection by this policy.

4.24 Abuse of the Code Process: Abuse of the student conduct process, including but not limited to: falsification, distortion, or misrepresentation of information under review by the VPES, the University Conduct Committee, Appellate Officer, and/or other University Conduct Officer; disruption or interference with the orderly conduct of a conduct meeting/Hearing; attempting to discourage an individual's proper participation in, or use of, the student conduct process; attempting to influence the impartiality of a University Conduct Officer prior to and/or during the conduct meeting/Committee Hearing; harassment (verbal or physical) and/or intimidation of a University Conduct Officer prior to, during and/or after a conduct meeting/Committee Hearing; influencing or attempting to influence another person to commit an abuse of the student conduct process; and retaliation against any person submitting a complaint of any alleged policy violation or against any person cooperating in the fact-finding (including testifying as a witness) of any alleged violation of this Code.

5. Intersection with Criminal Law

MBKU student conduct proceedings may be instituted against a student charged with conduct that potentially violates both the criminal law and this Code (that is, if both possible violations result from the same factual situation) without regard to the pendency of civil or criminal litigation in a court of criminal arrest and prosecution. Proceedings under this Code may be carried out prior to, simultaneously with, or following civil or criminal proceedings off campus at the discretion of the VPES. Determinations made or sanctions imposed under this Code shall not be subject to change because criminal charges arising from the same factual circumstances as the alleged University rules/regulations violation were dismissed, reduced, or resolved in favor of or against the Respondent/Defendant.

When a student is charged by federal, state, or local authorities with a violation of law, MBKU shall not request or agree to special consideration for that individual because of their status as a student. If the alleged offense is also being processed under the Code, MBKU may advise off-campus authorities of the existence of the Code and of how such matters are typically handled through the University student conduct process. MBKU shall attempt to cooperate with law enforcement and other agencies in the enforcement of criminal law on campus and in the conditions imposed by criminal courts for the rehabilitation of student violators (provided that the conditions do not conflict with campus rules or sanctions). Individual students and other members of the University community acting in their personal capacities, remain free to interact with governmental representatives as they deem appropriate.
